

Adam A. Bardwell

79 Mandiwood Farm Road Grafton NH 03240
+1 (719) 505-6604 • AdamBardwell22@gmail.com

Key Certifications & Awards

- Nationally Registered Paramedic
- NH Licensed Paramedic
- American Cardiac Life Support (ACLS)
- Dark Woods Prolonged Field Care Course
- WakeMed Tactical Medical Training Course
- Special Forces Advance Urban Combat
- US Army Special Forces Qualification Course
- Special Operations Combat Medic
- French Language (limited working proficiency)
- US Army Free Fall Parachutist School

Experience

June 2022-Present

Global Rescue
Security Operations Supervisor
Lebanon, New Hampshire

- Advises company management and CEO on security situations throughout the world
- International corporate security, rapid action planning, travel risk mitigation, and high-risk travel specialist
- Develops security and intelligence pre-travel assessments and plans for corporate, VIP, and government clients
- Assists the sales and marketing department with corporate accounts and the generates sales leads
- Creates customized emergency and security response plans for corporate executives and high-risk travelers
- Coordinates and manages Executive Protection Operations for high net worth individuals and VIPs globally
- Remains ready to deploy as a ground security liaison for international security situations and emergencies

June 2021- May 2022

Global Rescue
Medical Operations Supervisor
Lebanon, New Hampshire

- Led a team of Paramedics conducting medical evacuations, advisory, and case management throughout the world
- Provided client consultation services to develop and maintain organizational medical procedures, plans and policies, and pre-travel hospital recommendation as assessments.
- Coordinated international air ambulance transportations, SAR Operations, helicopter evacuations, and medical escort services throughout the world
- Developed company Standard Operating Procedures for Bivy Stick/Zoleo Road Post

June 2017- June 2021

U.S. ARMY, 3RD SPECIAL FORCES GROUP (AIRBORNE)
Special Forces Senior Medical Sergeant
Fort Bragg, NC | Chad | Syria

- Served as a Medical Sergeant for a Special Forces Operational Detachment-Alpha (SFOD-A) with a maritime operations capability
- Planned and executed Unconventional Warfare, Foreign Internal Defense, Direct Action, and Special Reconnaissance missions in support of CENTCOM and AFRICOM theater objectives

- Advised the Commander on the health and welfare of the detachment and the management of trauma patients
- Trained, advised, and assisted coalition, general purpose, and partner nation forces up to the battalion-level
- Synchronized redundant multi-echelon medical evacuation platforms in Syria and Chad
- Led joint assault force composed of Kurdish and coalition forces during Operation Inherent Resolve against ISIS in North Eastern Syria
- Assisted Forward Surgical Team and Special Operations Surgical Teams daily
- Paying Agent responsible for the management of the detachment's Operational Fund to include, but not limited to: budgeting, security, accounting, and remote fund withdrawal of at least $100,000 in physical funds monthly
- Conducted combat operations alongside Marines, Army, Air Force, and Host Nation forces in a highly contested region of the world
- Planning, analysis, execution, and development of strategic operations in permissive and highly delicate areas of operation

Military Education & Achievements

May 2020 – July 2020

SPECIAL FORCES ADVANCED URBAN COMBAT (SFAUC)

Fort Bragg, NC

- SFAUC is a Close Quarters Combat (CQB) school focusing on shooting, explosive and mechanical breaching, direct action planning, and company-level raids.

November 2017 – Dec 2017

SPECIAL FORCES DIVE MEDICAL TECHNICIAN (DMT)

Key West, FL

- United States of America Special Operations Command's (USASOC) certified Dive Medical Technician specializing in dive physics, dive-related injuries, open water rescue techniques, and hyperbaric chamber treatment tables.
- DMT is a specialized skill that allows Special Forces detachments to conduct high risk underwater training and missions.

June 2014 – June 2017

SPECIAL FORCES QUALIFICATION COURSE

Special Forces Medical Sergeant

Fort Bragg, NC

- Earned US Army Green Beret, a designation achieved by only 7% of all personnel invited to begin Special Forces Assessment and Selection Qualification course (2014-2017). US Army Green Berets are the Department of Defense's experts on Unconventional Warfare
- Military Free Fall Parachutist (MFF) Course: Conducted 21 High Altitude High Opening (HAHO) and High-Altitude Low Opening (HALO) Jumps during the day and at night
- Basic Special Operation Language Training Course: French (Limited Working Proficiency)
- Robin Sage: DoD's premier field exercise on unconventional warfare
- Special Forces Medical Sergeant Course: Surgical and analgesic procedures mastered include wound debridement, amputations, extensive wound care, and general anesthesia
- Survival Evasion Resistance Escape (SERE) School: High Risk Level-C
- Small Unit Tactics

May 2015 – February 2016

JOINT SPECIAL OPERATIONS MEDICAL TRAINING CENTER

Special Operations Combat Medic (SOCM) Course

Fort Bragg, NC

- DOD's premier 10-month medical program with an attrition rate of approximately 82% (2015-2016). Trained to maintain trauma casualties in austere environments with limited resources for up to 72-hours.
- Training in Basic Life Support/Automatic External Defibrillation (AED), pharmaceutical calculations, anatomy, physiology, pathophysiology, medical terminology, physical exam techniques, pharmacology, basic airway management, medical patient assessment, advanced airway management, patient management skills, pre-hospital trauma emergencies and care, tactical combat casualty care skills, operating room procedures, minor surgical skills, and prolonged field care.

- EMT Paramedic clinical rotation and field internship consists of a 4-week hospital rotation in the emergency department at Bayfront Medical Center, St. Petersburg, Florida's premier Level-1 Trauma Hospital. Conducted extensive trauma room rotations, as well as rotations in labor and delivery, surgical intensive care, pediatric emergency department, operating room, and the burn ward.
- Conducted 2-week rotation with Hillsboro County Emergency Department; responded to 911 calls, served as the primary medical provider for casualties of motor vehicle accidents, gunshot wounds, drug overdoses, suicide attempts, and cardiac episodes.

May 2015 – February 2016

U.S. ARMY, SPECIAL WARFARE MEDICAL GROUP

Special Forces Medical Sergeant

Fort Benning, GA

- Served as Special Forces Medical Sergeant in Martin Army Hospital
- Assisted emergency room doctors with trauma, medical, and sports-related injuries
- Served in the ER aiding Fort Benning's trauma room staff triage to treat nearly 100 active-duty soldiers

Civilian Education

Associates Degree, General Education

Fayetteville Technical Community College

Fayetteville, NC | 2017-2020